

1. At work, I listen to KLOVE via the Internet. I listen to KLOVE all the time while at home and in the car. That signal is available at the local level. I travel to thhe north on occassion which requires me to change KLOVE to another frequency.

Without these local transmitters, I would not be able to enjoy the music available through KLOVE.

KLOVE uses their network to provide positive and encouraging program to all who here it.